

Mechanical Seal Rig

Designed in partnership with British Energy

This rig is designed to assist in the training of technicians and apprentices in the correct techniques to fit mechanical seals into pumps. The rig is mounted on a Beta C28N O Supertank Trolley which has a 5 bar aluminium worktop and consists of a sectioned pump and 4 further replica pump ends, this allows 4 trainees to work at any one time.