

Gland Packing Rig

Designed in partnership with British Energy

Designed to assist in training staff in the correct method of fitting gland packing offline on a mobile rig which can be used in a Training Workshop.

- Mounted on a sub frame complete with Castors
- 1 off Worthington Simpson refurbished Mono Block Pump Unit
- Fabricated Stainless Steel Tank
- Pipe work, Valves, Gauge and Flanges
- Electrical Control Box with Emergency Stop
- Fitted with flying lead Connection

This rig provides realism without the need to take plant out of service to provide training.