

TRAINING RIG DIVISION

Instrumentation Rig

Designed in partnership with EDF Energy

The rig is designed to assist in the training of technicians/apprentices and shows how to set up a 4 – 20 small mA signal and understand the actions that they have on proportional valves. The rig can also be used for trainees to learn how to calibrate instruments.

Valve to be free issued by customer.